

Enduring power of attorney

Creating an enduring power of attorney is just as important as having a will.

This is simply a legal document appointing someone to act on your behalf if you become unable to make decisions for yourself in the future. A relative can no longer just “step in” – instead they face an expensive and lengthy court process.

Unite members will receive a discounted fee for preparation of an enduring power of attorney.

Unite Legal Services – Trust Your Union

Unite recognises that one of the key reasons members join is access to top quality legal services. We believe that the range and quality of the services provided by our Solicitors is the best available to trade union members in the Republic of Ireland and most of them are free.

Accidents at Work

Every year Unite wins millions of euros in compensation for members who have suffered work-related injuries. This includes assaults, industrial diseases and accidents.

30 minute Consultation with a Solicitor

Unite members can get free initial legal advice on any matter not related to work from Unite's solicitors. This service entitles you to receive a 30-minute meeting with a solicitor, free of charge.

Free Will Service

Making a Will is important as it will help protect your family in the event of your death by ensuring that only the people close to you benefit from your estate. Having this done on the High Street can be an expensive exercise, but Unite members are able to have their Will drawn up for free by one of the union's network of solicitors.

Members are eligible to use this service once they have been in the union for 26 weeks or more.

House Purchase and Mortgages

Unite's property solicitors know what investigations and searches to make to ensure that all legal aspects of a property transaction are in order.

This can be buying, leasing or selling a property, as well as discharging your mortgage or helping resolve title issues. Unite members will be guided through each step of the process to ensure everything goes as smoothly as possible.

Unite's solicitors can also guide you through the remortgaging process quickly and efficiently.

Reduced Legal Fees

Losing a loved one to a critical illness, or in an accident or indeed in any other way is an extremely upsetting and stressful experience. If you are unfortunate enough to experience this legal matters will seem utterly unimportant compared to everything else you are going through. However, during such a stressful time you are at risk of falling into financial and legal trouble if affairs are not put in order.

Taking care of the details surrounding a loved one's life can be emotionally exhausting and the added pressure of having to settle matters and organise finances can seem overwhelming. That is where our expert solicitors can help.

Unite's lawyers are experts at handling all of the complex legal issues which can arise when someone dies. They can deal with all the legalities in a way that is unobtrusive, compassionate and will allow the family to focus on the emotional impact of losing a loved one.

Unite members will receive significantly reduced legal fees for administering the deceased's estate.
